

This Magic Season

This magic season is all around us
fillin' up the air, fillin' up the air, oh.
This magic season, it will surround us.
Feel it ev'rywhere, feel it ev'rywhere
you are, you are. Oh!

This magic season, it's here inside us,
feel it in your heart, feel it in your heart, oh.
This magic season, it will inspire us.
Let the magic start, let the magic start

Ring the bells, light the lights, make it merry and bright!
Let us raise up our voices, raise up our voices!
Feel the glow from the hearts that you know
as the whole world rejoices, whole world rejoices in song.
